

Resources for Students

Simmons University is committed to supporting students in their academic and non-academic lives at Simmons. We're dedicated to helping students through investment in services, academic support, mentorship, and our campus. Each student has a unique need and can access the supports and resources available during the academic year unless noted otherwise.

Academic Resources

Supported by the Office of the Provost, this area includes Accessibility Services, Career Development, Global Education, Veteran Support, Technology Support, Tutoring, Writing Support, Undergraduate Academic Advising, and Library. You may email provost@simmons.edu as well.

Non-Academic Resources

Supported by the Division of Student Affairs, this area includes Commuter Services, Counseling Center, Health Center, REEF Support Center, and Violence Prevention and Education. If you are unsure of what department to contact, use the self-service Who Can Help Site. If you are looking for support services outside of the University you have access to the Simmons Student Assistance Program, which provides students and their household members confidential support, resources, and information for personal and work-life issues. You may email studentaffairs@simmons.edu as well.
