Struggling to Work Due to a Medical Condition? Brown & Brown Can Help.

If you're under retirement age and unable to work full-time due to illness, injury, or a medical condition, you may qualify for Social Security Disability Insurance (SSDI). Brown & Brown's experienced advocates simplify the complex SSDI application process and support you every step of the way.

Contact our client advocates for a no-cost-consultation who will:

- take time to fully understand your unique situation
- determine your SSDI eligibility
- explain the process of filing for SSDI
- answer any questions you may have
- onboard you as a client
- help you receive the benefits to which you are entitled

From application and appeals to medical records and hearing representation, we'll keep you informed throughout the entire process.

With over 20 years of experience and more than 200,000 SSDI awards secured, Brown & Brown's historical initial approval rates are nearly double the national average.

Beyond SSDI

Medicare Assistance

SSDI beneficiaries are eligible for Medicare after 24 months. Even if you have health insurance through other means, it is important to be informed about all your insurance options. As you approach eligibility, Brown & Brown offers free, personalized guidance from experienced licensed agents to help you choose the plan that meets your unique healthcare and financial needs.

Return to Work

Brown & Brown is recognized by SSA as a stand-alone Employment Network, enhancing job placement and benefit counseling for individuals with disabilities through SSA's Ticket to Work program. The Ticket to Work program is free and voluntary, allowing you to temporarily maintain your disability income and medical coverage-all while receiving guidance from an experienced career counselor every step of the way.

When you work with us

You have an experienced advocate to guide you through the complicated SSDI application process.

You receive support every step of the way, including navigating appeals and a court hearing, if needed.

You will be represented by an experienced disability attorney if your case goes to a hearing.
