

Notes

- Major requires at least 32 semester hours.
- Students are encouraged to study abroad but are expected to take a minimum of 16 semester hours of course work in the department, including at least 4 semester hours upon their return from study abroad. Otherwise, students are expected to take all classes for the major at Simmons with the possibility of transferring courses by petition and only in extreme hardship.
- Normally, no more than 4 semester hours of departmental courses given in English may be credited toward the major.
- Proficiency in a second modern language beyond the intermediate level is strongly recommended for all French majors.
- French Education candidates have to take FREN 310 & FREN 311 as part of the licensure requirement.
- See Simmons PLAN worksheet for all-college requirements.
